RUBRIC FOR SPEECH PROPOSAL PAPER

Outstanding: Paper is clear and complete, including introductory and concluding sentences and transitions. All information extremely well covered. The reader understands the writer's analysis of the speech and has a clear idea of the writer's plan for delivering the speech. The reader knows what to listen for.

Very Good: All information is included, and a few points are well covered. One idea may be incomplete, or the reader may have minor questions about the writer's analysis or plan for delivering the speech.

Good: All information is included, but more than one idea is incomplete or unclear. The reader is unsure of either the writer's analysis or the writer's plan for delivering the speech.

Needs Improvement: Some information is not included at all, OR the reader is unsure of both the writer's analysis and plan for delivering the speech.

Unacceptable: The paper is not attempted or cannot to be understood. The reader does not know what the writer thinks about the speech and cannot tell how the writer plans to deliver the speech.
