Follow-Up Reflections Sheet

Name: ___________________________ Date: ________________
Class/Section: ____________________

After thinking about your online reading experience, as well as the discussion of the thought processes the class engaged in during the print and online reading activities, please complete the following thought stems with specific comments and information.

1. While I was acting as the scribe for my partner’s think-aloud, something I noticed about the thought processes and skills used to read websites was....

2. Something I noticed about my thought processes while reading websites is....

3. One thing I learned about reading traditional print texts versus reading online texts is....

4. Another type of nontraditional text I would like to more closely examine my reading process for is.... Because....