A SENTENCE AS A POEM

1. Write your descriptive sentence.

__________________________________________

2. What imagery did you use in your sentence?

__________________________________________

3. What other figurative language did you include?

__________________________________________

4. Are there any other poem-like qualities in your sentence?

__________________________________________

5. Is your sentence a poem? Why, why not, or how could it be so?

__________________________________________

6. Rewrite your sentence as a poem, in the space provided or on the back of this sheet:

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________