

Baby Steps

Step One: Divide your book into 3 or 4 logical sections. Follow the idea of exposition, climbing action, climax, falling action and resolution.

Step Two: Create the first page including title, author, graphic, and first names of group members

Step Two: Write beginning piece for preface, forward, introduction page.

Step Three: Decide which genres you wish to use for each section.

Step Four: Decide who will write each genre (you must write 4 each)

Step Five: Write genres - type each as a separate file.

Step Six: Determine which genre will be first in each section

Step Seven: Choose links from index to first page of each section

Step Eight: Choose links from first page of each section to all other pages in that section. Also choose a Link back to the index page.

Step Nine: Choose links from all pages in each section to all other pages in that section, including the first Page.

Step Ten: Set up Web site using hyper linking to add new pages, not the Navigation View.
