

READING JOURNAL INSTRUCTIONS

These reading journals will assist your group in discussing your book in literature circles. You must have a journal for each reading assignment. You will need a minimum of five journals. Each entry must contain two or three quotations and responses to the quotation and at least two of the following elements. Each element can only be used two times in your journal.

1. A vocabulary word, defined, with a sentence illustrating its use.
2. A drawing of a significant scene in that day's reading.
3. Two good discussion questions for your group to discuss
4. A bit of research over some topic in that day's reading.
5. A connection between something in your reading and another piece of literature, history, personal experience.

At the top of each page, please put your name, the title of the book, the author's name, the page you are on, and the number of the entry for your book.
