

Science Fiction Reflection Questions

- What makes the text fiction?
- Is your text fiction because of inaccuracies (which are proved by your nonfiction research), or is it science fiction because of the scientific principles woven into the plot?
- Did the author do his or her homework regarding the portrayal of space travel, the future, human portrayal? In other words, is information presented accurately?
- What evidence is there that the author did his or her homework in preparing to write this novel?