

Basic Questions about Audience

- What do you know about audiences' age, gender, geographical location, education, professional position, and so forth?
- What is the audiences' current point of view on the issue?
- What personal information about the audience might influence their position or feelings on the issue?
- What will the audience want to know about the issue and why?