

Character Childhood Rubric

| | 3 | 2 | 1 |
|--------------------|--|--|---|
| CONTENT | Student told a story that effectively explained or foreshadowed at least two of their character's adult characteristics. | Student told a story that effectively explained or foreshadowed at least one of their character's adult characteristics. | Student told a story that did not effectively explain or foreshadow any of their character's adult characteristics. |
| DETAIL | Student included enough detail to make the relationship between the story about the character's childhood and the adult character clear. | Student included some detail, but not enough to make the relationship between the story about the character's childhood and the adult character clear. | Student did not include detail. |
| FORMAT | Student chose an effective format for the story he or she wanted to tell and followed the conventions of that format. | Student chose an effective format for the story he or she wanted to tell, but did not follow the conventions of that format. | Student did not choose an effective format for the story he or she wanted to tell. |
| CONVENTIONS | Student made few grammar or spelling mistakes. | Student made several grammar or spelling mistakes. | Student made numerous grammar or spelling mistakes. |