

Rubric for All Quiet on the Western Front Assignment

CATEGORY	4	3	2	1
Title	Creative new title that relates to the story and new ending very well.	New title relates to the story well, but is not very original or new.	New title is present, but does not appear to be related to the new ending.	No title or uses the original title rather than creating a new title for the project.
Rewritten Ending	Excellent, well-written, maintains Remarque's style and irony, weaves new title into the ending.	Well-written. Maintains the irony of the original. Includes the new title in the ending.	Acceptable. Ending includes the new title, but shows little of the irony of the original.	Weak in all areas. Little evidence of attempting to meet criteria.
Book Cover	Polished work. Includes an illustration that relates to the symbolism of the new ending, and states the new title clearly.	Good work. Includes an illustration that relates to the new title, but does not demonstrate the symbolism adequately.	Acceptable work. Includes an illustration that relates to the book, but does not relate specifically to the new ending.	Incomplete or unfinished. Missing required aspects of the cover.
Correctness	There are 2 or fewer spelling, grammar or punctuation errors in the project.	There are 3 or fewer spelling, grammar or punctuation errors in the project.	There are 4 or fewer spelling, grammar or punctuation errors in the project.	There are more than 4 spelling, grammar or punctuation errors in the project.