

Sequence of Events Chart

The chart is a vertical sequence of four rows. Each row is designed for recording an event. On the left side of each row is a chevron-shaped box, which typically contains a page number or a reference to a specific part of a text. To the right of this chevron is a large, rounded rectangular box intended for students to describe the event that occurred on that page.